

CAO's REPORT

March 12, 2019

1. The Intermunicipal Collaboration Committee (ICC) met on February 28 to discuss several topics regarding regional services for water rescue, economic development, solid waste and a subdivision appeal board. After discussions, the ICC recommended the following: 1. That Town/Village and County Councils consider amending the Intermunicipal Regional Fire and Rescue Service Agreement to include water rescue services; 2. That Administration provide the Committee with information and alternatives for a landfill operating under either: a) a municipal agreement, b) a commission or c) a municipal corporation; 3. That Administration from each municipality provides updates on their respective economic development strategies to Town/Village and County Councils; and, 4. That each Council provides updates on their respective wastewater programs.

The next ICC meeting is scheduled for April 12.

2. The Annual General Meeting for Clearwater County's insurance carrier, Genesis Reciprocal Insurance Exchange, takes place March 18 during the Rural Municipalities Association's Convention. Murray Hagan, Director Corporate Services, will attend on the County's behalf.
3. Central Alberta Economic Partnership (CAEP) invites all members of Council to attend the Elected Official – Member Engagement Meeting on Monday, April 8 at 9:00 am.

As an appointed CAEP Board member, Deputy Reeve Vandermeer is authorized to attend, however should other councillors wish to attend, a motion is required.

4. Blue Mountain Power Co-op, formerly Rocky Rural Electrification Association, invites two representatives from Clearwater County to attend its Annual General Meeting on April 17.

Should councillor(s) wish to attend, a motion to authorize is required.

5. Red Deer College (RDC) Board of Governors invites the Reeve or designate to attend an engagement session on April 10. The Board is asking for perspective on the future needs of the region to determine the future direction of the College.

Should the Reeve or designate wish to attend, a motion is required.
